

The Mellon Digital Humanities Initiative presents

WALKING TOWARDS AUTONOMY

Lecture & Discussion with Filmmakers Simón Sedillo and Eugénie Tailhandie

Walking Towards Autonomy examines traditional communal forms of self governance practiced in Cherán, Mexico after community members expelled all government officials, all police, military, and all political parties.

Friday, October 7

12:00-1:30pm

Roemmele Global Commons in Williams Hall

Pizza lunch provided

Free Film Screening of
Walking Towards Autonomy
Friday, October 7 7pm
Victory Firehouse
205 Webster St.
Bethlehem

Photo: Eneas De Troya. Creative Commons

5 X 10 Collaborative Communities Track

Cosponsored by Latin American Studies & The Humanities Center

For more information visit lehigh.edu/mdhi

*Office of Interdisciplinary Programs 31 Williams Hall 610-758-3996 incasip@lehigh.edu

LEHIGH
UNIVERSITY