

MOVEMENT

Humanities Center 2012-2013

Wednesday, September 5, 2012

Neal A. Lester

Professor of English and Associate Vice President for Humanities and Arts, Arizona State University
"Project Humanities: A Model for Collaboration and Possibility"

Thursday, September 20, 2012

Michael Hardt

Chair of the Literature Program, Duke University
"The Right to the Common"

Tuesday, October 23, 2012

William Pope.L

Associate Professor of Visual Arts, University of Chicago
"Three Projects"

Thursday, November 1, 2012

Tariq Tegua

Director, Producer, Screenwriter
Screening of In Land followed by Q & A

Thursday, November 15, 2012

Erin Manning

Research Chair, Philosophy and Relational Art, Concordia University
"Choreography as Mobile Architecture"

Thursday, November 29, 2012

Ethan Kleinberg

Professor of History and Letters, Wesleyan University
"Back Where We've Never Been"

Thursday, January 31, 2013

Lawrence Venuti

Professor of English, Temple University
"Translation, Intertextuality, Interpretation"

Thursday, March 21, 2013

Dana Yahalomi

Cofounder and Leader Public Movement
"Public Movement. SALONS: Birthright Palestine?"

Thursday, April 4, 2013

A Panel on Contemporary Political Movements

Participants TBA
"Decoding the Political Tides: The Tea Party & Occupy Wall Street"

Thursday, April 11, 2013

Alice Echols

Professor of English, and the Barbra Streisand Chair of Contemporary Gender Studies, University of Southern California
"Moves and Movements: The Case of 1970s Gay Liberation"

All events will be held in the Scheler Family Humanities Forum,
Linderman Library, Room 200
and will begin at 4:10pm