Thursday, September 22, 2005 - 4:10pm
“From Shoveling Shit to a Million-Dollar Business”
Tom Szaky – Eco-Entrepreneur
Chief Executive Officer, TerraCycle, Inc., Trenton, NJ

Thursday, October 27, 2005 - 4:10pm
"Labors of Waste and Landscapes of Wealth: An Anthropology of Garbage"
Director, Draper Program in Humanities and Social Thought, NYU, New York, NY

Tuesday, November 8, 2005 - 4:10pm
“Windshields, Straw Bales, and Carpet Tiles: Architectural Reconnaissance at the Social and Environmental Edge”
Bruce Lindsey
Professor and Head, School of Architecture, Auburn University, Auburn, AL

Thursday, January 26, 2006 - 4:10pm
“Waste and Want: Trash and American Consumer Culture”
Susan Strasser – author of Waste and Want
Professor of History, University of Delaware, Newark, DE

Thursday, February 23, 2006 - 4:10pm
"Harlem Declares Ya Basta! The What-if Challenge"
Ashanti Alston – Anarchist and former Black Panther

Thursday, March 16, 2006 - 4:10pm
Scott C. Shershow – author of The Work and the Gift
Professor of English, University of California, Davis, CA

Wednesday, March 22, 2006 - 4:10pm
“The Body is Obsolete”
STELARC – Australian Performance Artist

Tuesday, April 11, 2006 - 4:10pm
“Disposable People: New Slavery in the Global Economy”
Kevin Bales – author of Disposable People: New Slavery in the Global Economy
President, Free the Slaves

Thursday, April 20, 2006 - 4:10pm
“Nuclear Waste Detection, Disposal and Re-use”
Adam Bernstein – Nuclear Waste Control Specialist
Advanced Detector Group, Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory

All lectures/events will be held at Packer Memorial Church.
For more information, contact
Lehigh University Humanities Center
610-758-4649 or inhum@lehigh.edu.

Image: Nickel Tailings
www.edwardburtynsky.com